Thou didst serve the Word blamelessly, O ven - 'ra - ble

one; thou wast offered to the Lord as a sacrifice of sweet sa - vor, con-sumed by ma - te - ri - al fire.

Thou hast been counted worthy of the joy of heav - en,

[where thou dost...]

where thou dost ev - er — pray // for those who honor thee,

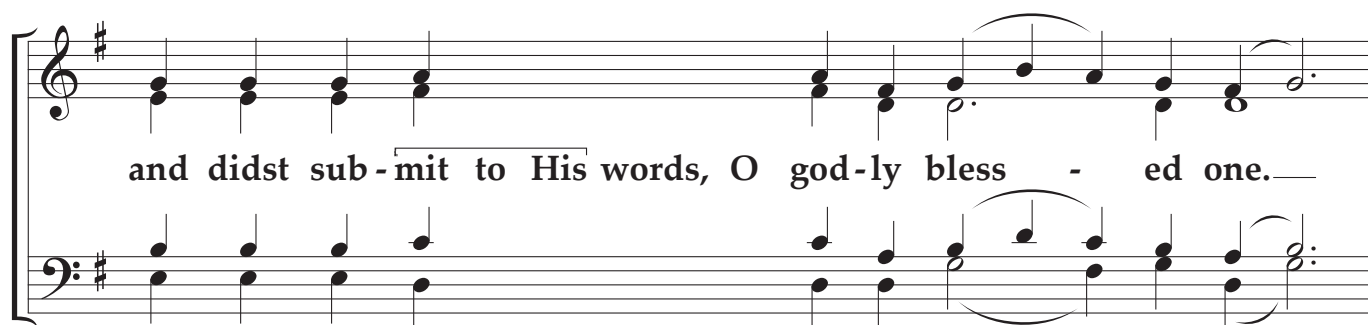

O Law - rence.

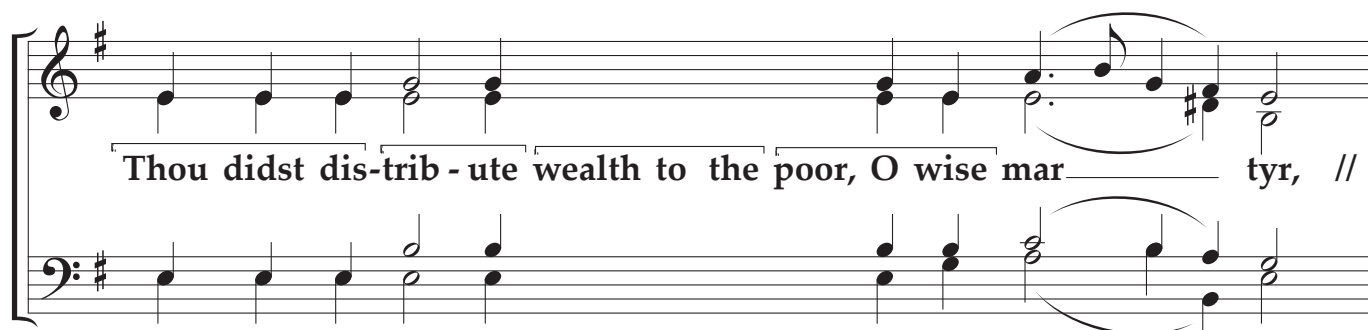

Sticheron 2

Thou didst give thy - self as a treas - ure for the Lord and didst sub - mit to His words, O god - ly bless - ed one. —

Thou didst dis - trib - ute wealth to the poor, O wise mar tyr, //

wise-ly and wondrously endur-ing tor - ments.

Sticheron 3

Let us praise with splendor Lawrence, the beauty of the

mar - tyrs, the glo-rious and won - drous war-rior, the foun - tain of miracles, the help - er of the op - pressed, // the star of great ra-diance, the ho - ly mar - tyr!
