Sticheron 1

Russian Imperial Court Chant
arr. from L'vov/Bakhmetev

Soprano
Alto

Tenor
Bass

The grace of the Holy Spir - it dwelt within you, O

Proph - et of God, making you a radiantly shining bea - con with its light. // Through you, He preached to Nineveh the great things that were — to come!

Sticheron 2

O Nahum, you were revealed to be a light-bearing cloud, letting fall a shower of divine knowledge. O Prophet of God, you gave the city of Nineveh the judgment of God to drink, // for it was sick with impiety.

The musical score is written for four voices, using a two-staff system (treble and bass clefs) with a key signature of one flat (B-flat). The lyrics are in English and are aligned with the musical notation. The score is divided into four systems, each with a treble and bass staff. The lyrics are: "O Nahum, you were revealed to be a light-bearing cloud, letting fall a shower of divine knowledge. O Prophet of God, you gave the city of Nineveh the judgment of God to drink, // for it was sick with impiety." The notation includes various musical symbols such as notes, rests, and bar lines.

Sticheron 3

You were a partaker of incorruptible glory and in - ef - fa - ble re-nown, unutterable joy and divine sweet - ness.

O divinely inspired Nahum, Proph - et of God, // pray for us to the Mas - ter of all!
