

Doxastichon at the Aposticha

The Fifth Sunday of Great Lent - St. Mary of Egypt

vs. Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit.

Kievan Chant
arr. from B. Ledkovsky

Tone 2

Soprano
Alto

Tenor
Bass

With the sword of ab - sti-nence, thou didst cut down the corrupt desires of thy soul and the pas - sions of thy flesh. With the si - lence of the wilderness thou didst strangle thy sinful words and thoughts. Thou didst wa - ter the [desert with the streams . . .]

desert with the streams of thy tears, and madest the fruits of repent - ance grow — for us. // We cel - e - brate thy mem - o - ry, O ho - ly one.

vs. Now, and ever, and unto ages of ages. Amen.

Theotokion

A new — miracle surpasses all an - cient mir - a - cles!

Who knows of a Mother who gave birth with-out — a man,

[who carried in her arms . . .]

who car - ried in her arms her Cre - a - tor? This birth is the will of God! Since thou didst carry Him as an infant in thine arms, O most pure one, and since thou dost pos - sess motherly boldness be - fore Him,

do not cease praying for us who hon - or thee, //

[that He may be . . .]

that He may be boun - ti - ful and save — our souls!
