Judge, give me the grace of tears, that I may find forgiveness of sins and de-liv-erance from my in-iq-ui-ties, and that, while I fast, I may cry to You: "Have com-pas-sion on me, O Christ and Lord, // ac-cord-ing to Your great and rich mer-cy!"

Though I am lost in the hills of evil in-iq-ui-ties, seek me, O Word, as I call out to You, having wandered far from You in the multitude of my e - vil pas - sions!

Re - vive me in this death, and pu - ri - fy me with fasting and con-stant weep - ing, that I may cry out to You:

"O Christ Lord, have com - pas - sion on me // ac - cord - ing to Your great and rich mer - cy!"

Hav-ing be-gun the third week of the fast, O be-liev - ers, let us praise— the ven - era - ble Tri - ni - ty, pass - ing the re-main-ing time— with glad - ness and joy, starv-ing the pas - sions of the flesh! Let us glean di - vine— flow - ers from our souls, weaving them into crowns for the day that is lord of days, // that wearing our crowns, we may praise the tri - umph - ant Christ!
