Thy pre - cious Cross, O Christ — God, which Moses of old prefigured in his own per - son when he

o - ver - threw Am - a - lek and put him to flight;

which David commanded to be wor - shipped, call - ing

[it Thy footstool:]

it Thy foot - stool: this same Cross we sinners worship to - day with un - wor - thy lips. We praise Thee, Who wast pleased to be nailed up - on it, and we cry — to Thee: //

"With the thief, make us worthy of Thy King - dom, O Lord!"
