Sticheron 5

Born on the remote island of At - ka, thou wast called to be-come a wit-ness to Christ, not by the glorious path of mar - tyr-dom, but by hum-bly accepting the divine call to enter the holy priest - hood, preach-ing, healing, counsel-ing, pray-ing to God // and tending thy flock for forty years in the A - las - kan wil - der - ness.

Sticheron 6

Mis - - - sion-ar - y teacher of the At-kan A - le - uts, thou didst trans-late the Word of God and found-ed schools for them;

[continuing...]

con - tin - u - ing the missionary efforts of the Holy Hierarch In - no - cent. Fol - low - ing his example, thou didst journey to re - mote lands, bring - ing the Gospel to the Yup'iks and A - tha - bas - cans, bap - tiz - ing them to love and u - ni - ty in Christ, // sanctifying them and be - stow - ing the bless - ings of peace. _____
