Russian Imperial Chapel Chant
arr. from L'vov/Bakhmetev

Soprano
Alto

Tenor
Bass

God has chosen a humble mother from A - las - ka to be an example for all the ser - vants of God; He has given us Saint Olga as a helper in af - flic - tions and as a guide to leading a life of sac - ri - fi - cial love.

[Therefore, we entreat...]

Therefore, we entreat thee, O holy Mother Ol - ga:

The first system of musical notation consists of a treble and bass staff joined by a brace. The key signature has one flat (B-flat). The melody is written on the treble staff with notes on the lines G4, Bb4, and D5. The bass staff provides a harmonic accompaniment with notes on the lines G3, Bb3, and D4. The lyrics are placed between the staves, with 'thee,' and 'you,' on a single line and 'O holy Mother Ol - ga:' on the next line.

pray that we, thy sinful chil - dren, may be saved //

The second system of musical notation continues the melody on the treble staff with notes on the lines G4, Bb4, and D5. The bass staff continues the accompaniment with notes on the lines G3, Bb3, and D4. The lyrics are 'pray that we, thy sinful chil - dren, may be saved //', with 'thy' and 'your' on a single line.

and rejoice with thee in the Kingdom of Heav - en.

The third system of musical notation concludes the piece. The treble staff ends with a final cadence on D5. The bass staff ends with a final cadence on D4. The lyrics are 'and rejoice with thee in the Kingdom of Heav - en.', with 'thee' and 'you' on a single line.
