O ho - ly and humble Moth - er Árr - sam - quq,*

in whom God is won - drous, — we re - joice

in the beauty of thy ho - li - ness, and we do not hide our love and de - vo - tion to thee. — Lov - ing - ly

[remember us// before...]

*St. Olga's given Yupik name, pronounced "AKH-some-gook."

re - mem - ber us // be - fore the Cre - a - tor.

Sticheron 2

O ho - ly and kind-hearted Moth - er Ol - ga,

whom God has glo - ri - fied on ac - count of thy humility and self - sac - ri - fice, in - ter - cede for us who are weak of will, and lov - ing - ly

[remember us // before...]

re-mem - ber us // be - fore the Cre - a - tor.

Sticheron 3

O ho - ly and gentle Moth - er Ol - ga,

who dost know our life and our man - y temp - ta - tions,

we nev - er - the - less de - sire to walk in thy pi - ous foot-steps. Lov - ing - ly re-mem - ber us // be - fore the

[the Creator.]

Cre - a - tor.

Sticheron 4

Pray for thy chil - dren, O blessed mátushka of Kweth - luk,* - for though we are unworthy of God's mer - cy, we know that thy moth - er - ly

love ne - ver fails: Lov - ing - ly re-mem - ber us //

*KWEETH-look

[before the Creator.]
