the Apostle Paul saying that the flesh lusts against the spir - it, you has - tened to make the worse be subject to the bet - ter, and to make the flesh serve the spir - it.

[By wearing chains . . . ]

By wear - ing chains — and carrying heav - y bur - dens, you ex - hausted the troubled flesh until you had at - tained — Christ, and in re - turn for all that you had given up for the sake of Christ you obtained the promised recompense of grace a hun - dred-fold on earth // and the in - her - it - ance

The image shows a musical score for a Kievan chant. It consists of two staves, a treble clef staff on top and a bass clef staff on the bottom. The key signature is one sharp (F#), and the time signature is 8/8. The melody is written in a simple, homophonic style. The lyrics are "of ev - er - last - ing life." The word "ing" is written with a long horizontal line underneath it, indicating a long note. The score ends with a double bar line and a repeat sign.
