We see the fruits of the Spir - it in thy holy life, O blessed Fa - ther, for thou didst live and delight in the Gos-pel pre-cepts, teaching from the abundance of thine ex - pe - ri - ence. Pray to Christ that we may [worthily follow thine . . .]

worthily follow thine ex - am - ple, // and that He might save — our souls!

Sticheron 2

O divinely-wise hus - band - man, thou didst not la - bor in vain, for pow - er from the Most High was grant - ed to thee, so that a new and fruitful

[vineyard / would appear . . .]

vine-yard would appear in the Alaskan wil - der-ness. Watch o - ver us also, O Fa - ther Ja - cob, // that by thine intercessions Christ may save — our souls!

Sticheron 3

Christ commanded us to make disciples of all na - tions, and thou, O Saint, hast ful - filled His Word by thy repentance by teach - ing them to pray: // "Glory to Thee, O God our Sav - ior!"

Sticheron 4

O righteous Father Ja - cob, thy virtues are re-vealed in all the earth. Who would not marvel at thy [patience, / thy kindness . . .]

pa - tience, thy kindness to the need - y, thy steadfastness in tribu - la - tion? There-fore, we cry a - loud in praise: // "O Holy Father Jacob, truly thou art bless - ed!"
