

Doxastichon at “Lord, I call”

St. Thomas Sunday

Tone 6
by John the MonkZnamenny Chant
English setting by VM

Now and ever, and unto ag - es of ag - es. A - men.

When _ the doors _____ were _____ shut, Je - sus _ came _ to _ His Dis - ci - ples. The A - pos - - - - tle Thom - (as,) - - - -

as, by di - vine _

dis-pen-sa-tion, was _ not _ with them, for _ he _ spoke _ these _ words: “Un - less _ I see _ the _ Mas - ter _ my - self, _ un - less I _ see _ His side _ flow - ing with bap - tis - mal _ blood _ and wa - ter, un - less I _ see _ those _ wounds, which have healed

all man - kind, un - less I see not a spir - it, but flesh and bones, I will not be - lieve. "Glo - ry to Thee, O

Lord, for Thou didst con - firm Thom - as in faith, // and hast tram - pled death by death!