The musical notation consists of three staves of music. The first two staves begin with a G clef and end with a common time signature. The third staff begins with a G clef and ends with a F clef. The lyrics are written below the notes, with some words in English and others in Latin. The lyrics are:

and do not for - get to vis - it thy chil - dren as thou didst prom - ise, O ven - - - 'ra - ble Ser - gius our fa - - - ther!

Accents and slurs are used throughout the music to indicate performance style.
