St Silouan of Athos - September 24

Tone 1
Sticheron 1

Russian Imperial Court Chant
arr. from L'vov/Bakhmetev

Soprano
Alto

Tenor
Bass

Let us all praise with hymns of gladness the new off-spring of

Ath - os, rightly added unto the con-gre-ga - tion of the saints, be - ing a perfect image of their vir - tues, Silouan, vouch-safed to see — God, // Whose grace he sought and made man - i - fest.

Sticheron 2

From child-hood you sought after God, O Silouan our fa - ther.

and held Him fast, not by knowl-edge a - lone, but by the in - eff - able power of the Spir - it: And you of-fer up your fer - vent prayer, // that all the peoples be filled with the gift of God's — grace.

Sticheron 3

"The king-dom of God is with-in man," so spoke our Lawgiver,

Who can - not lie; and you, O Silouan, close-ly searched His words, and found them to be as dew up - on the earth

of your heart, // bring-ing in - crease of seed.
