Ode 1

When Is - ra - el passed on foot o - ver the deep as if it were dry land, and be - held their pur - su - er Phar - aoh—

drown-ing in the— sea, they cried a - loud:— "Let us sing to God— a song— of vic - to - ry!"

Ode 3

There is none as ho - ly as Thou, O Lord— my God, who hast ex - alt - ed the pow - er of Thy faith - ful, O Bless -

- éd— One, and hast es - tab - lished us up - on the rock

of— Thy con - fes - - - sion.

Ode 4

Christ— is my strength,— my God— and my Lord, the sa - cred Church— sings— in a man - ner be - fit - ting God,

Ode 5

With Thy di - vine— light, — O Good One, il - lu - mine, I ask— Thee, the souls— of those who in love— keep— vig - il that they may know Thee, O

Word of God as the true God who— calls us back—from the— dark - ness— of sin.

Ode 6

Be - hold - ing the sea of life surg - ing with the storm of temp - ta - tions, I have fled to Thy tran - quil ha - ven and cry— out to— Thee: "Raise up my life from cor - rup - tion, O— great - ly— mer - ci - ful one!"

Ode 7

An an - gel made the fur - nace moist with dew for the god - ly chil - dren and the com - mand of God con - sum - ing
the Chal - de - ans made the ty - rant cry — out: "Bless - éd art Thou, O — God of our fa - - - thers!"

Ode 8

Out of the flames Thou didst drop — dew on the god - ly ones, and with wa - ter didst kin - dle the sac - ri - fice of the right - eous — one, for Thou do - est all — things — as Thou will - est, O Christ; we ex - alt — Thee through - out all — a - - - ges!

Ode 9

It is not pos - si - ble for men to see God up - on — whom the ranks of an - gels — dare — not — gaze,

but through thee, O all - pure — one, was the Word in - car - nate re - vealed — un - to men, Whom mag - ni - fy - ing to - geth - er with the heav - en - ly hosts, we — call thee —

bless - - - éd!
