FEBRUARY

Notes	Sunday	Monday	Tuesday
	“By the grace of God and through the labors and efforts of many, our Church has, slowly but confidently, maintained her course, addressed each successive challenge. Amid all of this, we hope that we are growing ever more mindful of our need to rely on God in all things. It is quite remarkable to observe the amazing journey of our Church from a struggling missionary outpost in Russian Alaska, to an expanding mission on the West Coast, to a multi-ethnic and continent-wide Metropolia striving to establish the foundations for what would eventually become a local autocephalous Church. Each step of that journey has provided concrete opportunities to plant and nurture the seeds of the One, Holy, Catholic, and Apostolic Church in these lands, opportunities for which we should always give thanks to God.”

And the fullest expression of our personhood in grounded and completed in the divine-human person of the God-man, Our Lord Jesus Christ. 	“Our bountiful God gives us everything as a gift and it is up to us to exercise the proper discernment in using the gifts or talents that he bestows on us. These gifts are many and great, from the very breath which sustains our human existence to the magnificent universe he created out of nothing, from the very life of his Son who was offered up in sacrifice for us to the eternal life of incorruption which Christ grants us by his glorious resurrection. All of this is contained in another gift which he gives to us: the One, Holy, Catholic, and Apostolic Church. With respect to this great gift, we also have a duty to discern the right ways to exercise good stewardship.”

	“When Our Lord discusses the apostolic work of the Church, he always describes it as a collective endeavor. Laborers came before us, and now we enter into their labor. We pray to the Lord of the harvest that he would send, not a laborer, but laborers. ... We all rely on each other for support and relief in our labors. ... The image of the Church as a ship, with a crew of many hands, each person with his own duty, reminds us that, though we have our own vocations, we are all working together for the common good of the Church and the world. The Lord could have carried out the whole work of salvation without our co-working, but it is an element of his grace that we participate in this labor and play our part in this voyage.”

Notes	Sunday	Monday	Tuesday
	“The heart of our ecclesiastical life is our liturgical life, and our true health is that great medicine of immortality, the Body and Blood that heal all ills of soul and body. This assertion, of course, in no way detracts from our consideration of the pressing needs and challenges in any other area of the life of our local Church. But it is always good to remember where we come from and where we are going. We are born from the side of God and destined at baptism for eternal union with God. ... This passage from death to life, together with Christ who leads the way, is the journey underlying all our voyages.”
