

Holy Synod of Bishops confirms St. Louis, MO as site of 19th All-American Council

SYOSSET, NY – During their fall session at the Chancery here October 18-21, 2016, the members of the Holy Synod of Bishops of the Orthodox Church in America gave their blessing to convene the 19th All-American Council [AAC] at the Union Station Hotel, Saint Louis, MO, July 23-27, 2018.

The Holy Synod in session.

“Nineteen US and Canadian cities had been considered in the extensive site search,” explained Archpriest Eric G. Tosi, OCA Secretary. “As with the 18th AAC in Atlanta, the Council will include a youth program in conjunction with the annual Fellowship of Orthodox Christians in America [FOCA] Convention at the same location July 20-23.”

Appointed to the Preconciliar Commission were His Grace, Bishop Paul of Chicago and the Midwest, Chair; Father Eric Tosi, AAC Director; Archpriest John Jillions, Chancellor; Melanie Ringa, Treasurer; Protospresbyter Leonid Kishkovsky, Consultant; Deacon Peter Ilchuk, Council Manager; Archpriest Timothy Hojnicky, Metropolitan Council representative; Becky Tesar, FOCA representative; and Priest Benjamin Tucci, Youth Coordinator. Archpriest Timothy Sawchak, Dean of the Kansas City Deanery, and Robert Butchko of Saint Louis will serve as clergy and lay chairpersons of the Local Organizing Committee.

In related news, the Holy Synod's session opened with the address of His Beatitude, Metropolitan Tikhon, who shared his ongoing work on the “four pillars” of Church life – a document articulating a long-term vision for the OCA. Reports were offered by the OCA's officers, the Office of Review of Sexual Misconduct Allegations and the Sexual Misconduct Policy Advisory Committee, the Department of Pastoral Life, the FOCA, the Office of External Affairs, and other departments and offices.

The Holy Synod of Bishops is the supreme canonical authority in the Orthodox Church in America. Chaired by the Metropolitan, the Synod includes as voting members all diocesan bishops. ■ FULL STORIES: <https://oca.org/news/headline-news/holy-synod-approves-st.-louis-as-site-of-19th-aac> and <https://oca.org/news/headline-news/holy-synod-of-bishops-concludes-fall-session2>.

Metropolitan Tikhon addresses annual CWS meeting

CHICAGO, IL – On Friday, October 28, 2016, His Beatitude, Metropolitan Tikhon addressed participants in the annual meeting of Church World Service at the headquarters of Chicago's Episcopal Diocese here.

In his reflection, Metropolitan Tikhon spoke of the example offered by North America's early Orthodox Christian missionaries, especially Saints Herman of Alaska and Tikhon, in addressing the plight of the poor and needy. He also elaborated on the Gospel-based mandate to discern

Monastic superiors hold annual Synaxis

ELLWOOD CITY, PA – With the blessing of their respective diocesan bishops, the superiors of the Orthodox Church in America's monasteries gathered at Holy Transfiguration Monastery here for their third annual Synaxis October 25-27, 2016.

His Beatitude, Metropolitan Tikhon and His Eminence, Archbishop Nathaniel, in whose diocese the monastery is located, were present at this year's gathering, which was attended by superiors or their representatives from 12 monasteries.

The superiors addressed several issues of importance for the monastic life. One session was devoted to an in-depth discussion of Metropolitan Tikhon's proposed Guiding Framework, with its focus on the four pillars of Church life – the spiritual life, stewardship, evangelism and outreach and external relations. Particular attention was given to the spiritual life, with each superior sharing the many ways in which their monasteries nurture their internal spiritual life and provide witness and encouragement for pilgrims, visitors and their local communities. ■ FULL STORY: <https://oca.org/news/headline-news/holy-transfiguration-monastery-site-of-monastic-superiors-annual-synaxis>
