Resolutions submitted prior to the Council shall be discussed during Plenary Sessions on topics already scheduled for discussion.

Floor Resolutions: Resolutions on topics not already scheduled for discussion in Plenary Sessions may be presented to the Chair, in writing, at any session, prior to the close of the Open Forum on Wednesday afternoon. Such resolutions will be presented to the Holy Synod, then referred to the Resolutions Committee, without debate. The Resolutions Committee will report on action taken on said resolutions during the Resolutions portion of the Eighth Plenary Session on Friday morning.

Procedures: During the appropriate Plenary Session, the Resolutions Committee will present the resolution(s), prepared prior to the Council that is related to the topic of that session. The introduction will serve to give background information and formally to place the resolution before the Council.
The debate on the resolution shall be limited to no more than six speakers, three in favor, three in opposition, speaking alternately, as recognized by the Chair. Each speaker shall be entitled up to three minutes to discuss the resolution.

Delegates may speak only once on any pending matter.

Once before the Council, all resolutions will be open for general debate and possible amendment. Amendments must be presented to the chair in writing but need not be submitted to the Resolutions Committee in advance; they must be germane.

Debate on any amendments shall be subject to the same limitations as for resolutions; when an amendment is the pending order of business, the delegates shall speak to the merits of the amendment only.

If, during the consideration of a resolution or an amendment, it appears to the Chair that a period of informal discussion would be appropriate, s/he may propose such. If the Council agrees, then a five-minute period of round table discussions will take place.

Once an amendment has been disposed of (i.e., adopted or rejected) debate shall resume where it left off on the proposed resolution, as (possibly) amended.

If appropriate, the Chair may call upon qualified persons to speak to technical points of a resolution or amendment; these interjections shall not be considered as part of the six-person debate.

All debate, resolutions, and amendments shall be conducted in accordance with the Statute of the Orthodox Church in America, and pursuant to these rules as supplemented by Roberts Rules of Order.

Fr Theodore Boback moved the adoption of the rules and the Council agenda, seconded by Mr Glen Mules. The motion was accepted.

In addition, the Council must elect two members of the Auditing Committee for six- and three-year terms. The person with the highest vote will receive a six-year term.

During the Fifth Plenary Session (Wednesday morning), nominations will be received from the floor for possible candidates (who are Council
