ON MONDAY, AUGUST 8, 2005, hundreds of pilgrims traveled by tugboat to Spruce Island, AK for the annual pilgrimage marking the feast of Saint Herman of Alaska. This year's pilgrimage marked the 35th anniversary of the glorification of Saint Herman.

The wonderworking Valaam Icon of the Mother of God, brought to Alaska by His Eminence, Archbishop Leo of Finland, accompanies the hierarchs (right) as they approach the shore of Spruce Island.

Ilaasi Friends of St. Herman Seminary

What is Ilaasi?

Ilaasi, Friends of St. Herman Seminary began in the mid-1970's to compliment the financial support for St. Herman Seminary. The word "Ilaasi" was adapted from the Alutiiq word "ILA-PUT", meaning "our friends"; the plural of the Alutiiq word is "ILACI", which means "your [plural] friends".

Mission

The mission of St. Herman Seminary is to train native Alaskans to serve the Orthodox Christians within the Russian Orthodox Diocese of Alaska as clergy, deacons, monastics and choir directors within the Russian Orthodox Diocese of Sitka, Anchorage and Alaska. The majority of the 34 priests and 10 deacons serving the 92 parishes in Alaska are St. Herman Seminary graduates.

Curriculum

St. Herman Seminary provides students with a curriculum in four, one-year modules, plus a fifth year of practical liturgical experience. The curriculum includes Mission and Evangelism, Dogmatic/Pastoral Theology, Liturgics, Patristics and Biblical Studies. Seminary graduates receive a Theological Diploma.

Ilaasi donations for 2004 supported a computer lab and purchased library software for cataloging and circulation in the Seminary library, which holds many items that are archival in nature and valuable to researchers, worldwide.

Ilaasi donations for 2005: Ilaasi donations for 2005 will be channeled to the seminary library, the foundation of national and state reaccreditation.

Fundraising under Ilaasi, Friends of St. Herman's provides the opportunity for all Orthodox Christians to assist with the seminary's financial needs.

What can you do to help St. Herman Orthodox Theological Seminary?

Become a member or of Ilaasi, Friends of St. Herman Seminary by making a member of Ilaasi, Friends of St. Herman's! Members make an annual contribution of $100.00 to further the education of our seminarians. Send your donation to:
