St. Vladimir's Office of Advancement offers several ways to practice the Christian act of stewardship for theological education:

- 1. Annual Giving: friends and supporters give directly to the Seminary for programs of service - training priest and church workers, the publication of books and the teaching of theology.
- 2. Special Giving: many choose to establish scholarships, underwrite the publication of a particular book or earmark gifts for specific activities of the school, such as library operations or chapel and grounds beautification.
- 3. Planned Giving: the Seminary helps and encourages people to make planned gifts. These gifts include bequests, gift annuities, charitable remainder trusts, gifts of securities, retirement assets and life insurance policies.

Planned gifts support our endowment and help ensure the future of theological education.

Planned gifts require the advice of financial estate and tax planning professionals.
