In Thy goodness Thou hast sanctified the whole world with Thy Light: Thou wast transfigured on a high mountain, showing Thy power to Thy Disciples; for Thou dost redeem the world from transgression. // Therefore we cry out to Thee: “O Lord of compassion, [save our souls!”] save our souls!”

Thou wast transfigured in glory on Mount Tabor, O

Christ God, showing to Thy Disciples the glory of Thy Di-vininity. Enlighten us also with the light of Thy knowledge and guide us in the path of Thy command-ments, // for Thou a-lone art good and the Lover of man!

[His divine majesty]
His divine majesty, today upon Mount Tabor mystically manifests the image of the Trinity. Taking aside the expressly chosen Disciples, Peter, James and John, He led them up into the mountain alone. Concealing briefly the flesh He had assumed, He was transfigured before them, fore them, manifesting the loveliness of the original beauty, though short of full perfection; for He spared them as He assured them, lest seeing, they die. Yet they perceived as far as they were able with their bodily eyes.

He likewise presented the chief Prophets, Moses and E-Li - jah, who tes - ti - fied to His Di - vin - i - ty:

that He is in - deed the true brightness of the essence of the Fa - ther, the Ruler of the liv - ing and the dead.

There - fore, a cloud covered them like a tab - er - nac - le,

and out of a cloud the Father’s voice bore wit - ness and said:

“This is my be - loved . . .”
"This is My beloved Son, Whom I have gotten without change from the womb before the Morn- ing

Star; I have sent Him to save those who are baptized in the Name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spir- it, and who confess with faith that the one power of the
