When the choirs of Is - ra - el crossed the Red Sea and the watery deep with dry feet, and saw the riders and captains of the enemy sub - merged in the sea, they cried out for joy: // “Let us sing to our God, for He has been glo - ri - fied!”
Kanon - Ode 3
The Transfiguration of the Lord – August 6

Heirmos 3

The bow of the mighty has grown feeble,

and the feeble have girded themselves with strength;

therefore, my heart is established in the Lord.
I have heard of Thy glorious dispensation, O Christ our God: that Thou wast born of the Virgin to deliver from error those who cry to Thee: // “Glory to Thy power, O Lord!”
Kanon - Ode 5
The Transfiguration of the Lord – August 6

Heirmos 5

Abbreviated Greek Chant
arr. from B. Ledkovsky

O Christ, Who parted the original chaos from the light, that, in light, Thy works might praise Thee as their Creator: // “Direct our paths in Thy light!”

In my affliction I cried to the Lord, and the God of my salvation heard me.
In Babylon the Children, sons of Abraham, once trampled upon the flame of the furnace, and they sang this song of praise: // “Blessed art Thou, the God of our fathers!”

The Children in Babylon, on fire with zeal for God, bravely trampled upon the threat of the tyrant and the flames;

and cast into the midst of the fire, but refreshed with dew, they sang: // “Bless the Lord, all you works of the Lord!”
Kanon - Ode 9

Magnify, O my soul, // the Lord Who was transfigured on Mount Tabor! Thy childbearing was without corruption; God came forth from thy body

clothed in flesh, and appeared on earth and dwelt among men. // Therefore we all magnify thee, O Theokos.

[a-mong men.]
