As a steadfast warrior of the Lord, thou didst vanquish the enemy array, O Lupus. Strengthened by divine love, with strength surpassing that of man thou didst prevail in thy contest. Now thou dost unceasingly intercede with Christ our God for us all.

* Transferred to 22 August due to the Leavetaking of the Dormition.