It was not right, O Chrysostom, that you should have departed from the royal city and dwell in Comana. Therefore, the royal court, inspired by God, summoned you back again to the Imperial City. And the Church rejoiced when she saw you, rendering...
thanks and saying: “My glory magnifies the Lord, Who has given me back my bridesman, the confirmation of the Faith, the good repute of my dignity, the peace of my mind, the height of humility, the depth of almsgiving and mercy, the wealth of poverty, and the height of repentance.” Therefore, we entreat you, O venerable...
Father, let us pray that our souls be granted peace and great mercy.
