thee, // and celebrate today thy holy dormition.

O divinely wise Anna, thou didst give birth to the bearer of Life. Thou didst present thy pure child to a life with God. Together with the heavenly hosts, thou dost rejoice in the [riches from on high] riches from on high. We commemorate thy falling asleep, and on this day we honor the Divine Wisdom in faith.

Having divine wisdom, thou didst give birth to the Door of Heaven, and thou didst achieve

[heavenly glory]
heavenly glory forever. We celebrate thy holy dormition, O Anna, and we ask thee to pray that the turmoil of passions not destroy us, // and that we be spared from fear and desolation.
