We have completed the forty days that profit our souls.

Now let us beg the Lover of man: enable us to see the holy week of Your passion, that we may glorify Your mighty work, Your wonderful plan for our salvation, as we sing with one heart and voice: // O Lord, glo-ry to You!

O mar-tyrs of the Lord, we beseech you to inter-cede with our God, that He may for-give our man-y sins, // and grant our souls abundant mer-cy.

Wishing to see the tomb of Laz-a-rus, O Lord, since of Your own will, You were soon to dwell in a tomb, You asked:

"Where have you laid him?" Learning that which was already known to You, You cried to Your beloved friend: "Lazarus, come forth!" And he who had no breath obeyed the Lord Who gave him breath, for You are the Savior of our souls.
You have come to the place of the burial of Lazarus, O Lord, the tomb of a man four days dead. Weeping for Your friend, O Bread of Life, You raised him up. Therefore death was bound by Your voice, and grave clothes were loosened by Your hand. The band of disciples was filled with joy. One song of adoration was sung by all:
Blessed are You, O Savior! Have mercy on us!

Your voice destroyed the kingdom of hell, O Lord. Your powerful word raised from the tomb the one who was four days dead.

Lazarus became the saving first-fruits of the world’s regeneration.

All things are possible for You, O Lord and King of all.// Grant Your servants cleansing and great mercy!

You came to the tomb of Lazarus, O Lord, and called him by name, wishing to assure Your disciples of Your own Resurrection.

Hell was vanquished! It released Lazarus who was four days dead.

He cried out to You: // “Glory to You, O blessed Lord!”
You came to Bethany to wake Lazarus, O Lord, accompanied by Your disciples. You wept for him, but he was raised by Your almighty power. A man four days dead cried to You, O our Savior: “Glory to You, O blessed Lord!”
