Doxastichon at “Lord, I Call”

Triodion - Lazarus Saturday

Tone 8

Soprano

Alto

Tenor

Bass

Stand-ing by the tomb of Lazarus, O Sav-ior, You called to Your friend, who was dead. He heard Your voice, and a-woke as from sleep. Mortality was shaken by immor-tal-i-ty. By Your word the bound was un-bound. All is possible! All things serve and sub-mit to You, O lov-ing Lord.// O our Savior, glo-ry to You!

We have completed the forty days that profit our souls.

Let us sing: Rejoice, city of Bethany, home of Lazarus! Rejoice,

Mary and Martha, his sisters! Tomorrow Christ will come and raise your dead brother to life. Bitter and unsatisfied, hell will hear His voice. Shaking and groaning, it will release bound
The assembly of Hebrews will be amazed. They will greet Him with palms and branches. Though their priests and elders look on Him with envy and malice, the children shall praise Him in song: “Blessed is He Who comes in the name of the Lord, the King of Israel!”
