The Devil used the Apostate Emperor as a vessel of evil filling him with foul thoughts of polluting the food of the fasting people. But you overcame his craftiness with wiser reasoning: you appeared to the Archbishop in a dream and revealed the wick-ed plot to him. For this we give thanks to you, O Martyr

The o-dore, and honor you as a helper and de-liv-er-er.

Every year we remember this miracle at this sea-son. By your in-ter-ces-sions to God, // may we be de-livered from the reasonings of the E-vil One!
