The Holy Spirit taught the Apostles to speak in many strange languages. He also inspired the innocent Hebrew children to sing: “Hosanna in the highest!”

Blessed is He that comes, the King of Israel!”

The Word of God Who has no beginning:

the Father's Co-e-ter-nal Son, to-day comes to the city of Je-ru-sa-lem, en-throned on a dumb beast, the foal of an ass. The Cher-u-bim are afraid to gaze up-on Him, yet the children honor Him with palms and branch-es. The Spir-it inspires their song of praise:

[“Hosanna in the . . . ”]
“Ho-sanna in the highest! Ho-sanna to Da-vid’s Son, //
Who has come to save man-kind from er-ror!”

Six days before the Feast of Pass-over,

Your voice resounded in the depths of hell, O Lord, rais-ing

Lazarus who had been dead four days. Then the children of the Hebrews danced and sang: // “Hosanna to our God!"

Glory to You!”

You have entered the Holy City, O Lord, riding on the colt of an ass, hastening to Your Passion, that the Law and the Prophets might be fulfilled. The Hebrew Six days before the Feast of Passover Jesus came to Bethany. He restored Lazarus to life, announcing the coming resurrection. Martha and Mary met Him, crying: “Lord, if You had been here, our brother would not have died!” Jesus answered them, "Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit, now and ever, and unto ages of ages. Amen."

answered them, “Have I not already told you:

If anyone believes in me, even if he dies, he shall live? Show me the place where you buried him!”

Then the Creator of all cried out to him: “Lazarus, come forth!”
