You flourished like a palm tree in the house of God, bringing forth the fruit of virtues for the Lord through your as-cetic efforts. Therefore, you are called blest, venerable Father Theodore, for you are equal to the bodiless ones!

© 2004 Orthodox Church in America. Permission is granted to duplicate for liturgical use only. All other rights reserved.