To-day we remember the great teachers of prayer and abstinence.

They were made real to us because of your words, deeds, and example.

Your wondrous life confounded the Enemy. You conversed with Angels; together with them, O Blessed Father Herman, pray for the salvation of our souls!