The first martyr came from a distant land; the second was born in Russian America. Juvenaly received the benefits of a formal education; while Peter was taught how to survive in the wilderness. The monk dedicated his life to...
Christ as a man of prayer; the boy became a witness to Christ, accepting torture and death. Now both are glorified equally by God, the God Who loves (all) men. Remembering their loving sacrifice, // may we also grow to the fullness of love, revealed to us in Christ!
