Today in the city of David all the nations beheld glorious wonders, when the Disciples of Christ had gathered together, and the Holy Spirit came down in tongues of fire, as Luke, inspired of God, records: "A sound came like the rushing of a mighty wind; it filled all the house where they were sitting, and they all began to proclaim strange words, strange doctrines, // strange teachings of the Holy Trinity."

The Holy Spirit was, and is, and ever shall be, without beginning, without ending, always ranked and numbered with the Father and the Son; He is Life and the Giver of life;

He is Light and the Giver of light; all good and the Fountain of goodness, through Him the Father is known, the Son is glorified; through Him all people proclaim one power, one The Holy Spirit is Light and Life, a living Fountain of spiritual gifts, the Spirit of wisdom and understanding, all-knowing, upright and good: He leads us and washes away our sins. He is God, and He makes us gods; He is Fire proceeding from Fire, speaking and acting and distributing gifts. Through Him all the Prophets, Martyrs and Apostles of God are crowned. Strange account, strange and wonderful sight: // fire is divided for distributing gifts.
