Today in the city of David all the nations beheld glorious wonders when the Disciples of Christ had gathered together, and the Holy Spirit came down in tongues of fire, as Luke, inspired of God records: "A sound came like the rushing of a mighty wind; it filled all the house where they were..."
sitting, and they all began to proclaim strange words, strange doctrines, strange teachings of the Holy Trinity.

The Holy Spirit was, and is, and ever shall be, without beginning, without ending, always ranked and numbered with the Father and the Son; He is Life and the Giver of life;
He is Light and the Giver of light; all good and the Fountain of goodness, through Him the Father is known, the Son is glorified; through Him all people proclaim one power—one ranking, one worship of the Holy Trinity.

The Holy Spirit is light and life, a living fountain of Pentecost Kneeling Vespers - "Lord, I Call" stichera (Common Chant) p. 3 spiritual gifts, the Spirit of wisdom and understanding, all-knowing, upright and good He leads us and washes away our sins. He is God, and He makes us gods; He is fire proceeding from fire, speaking and acting and distributing gifts. Through Him all the Prophets, Martyrs and Apostles of God are crowned. Strange account, strange and wonderful sight:

fire is divided for distributing gifts.

O heavenly King, O Comforter, O Spirit of truth,

You are everywhere present, filling all things; O Treasury of blessings and Giver of life, come and abide in us, and cleanse us from every impurity, and save our souls, O Good One!
