Stichera at "Lord, I Call"

Pentecost

Sticheron 1
Tone 1

We celebrate the feast of Pentecost and the coming of the Spirit, the appointed day of the promise, the fulfillment of hope. How majestic and great is the mystery!

Therefore we cry aloud to you: // "Glory to You, O Lord and..."

You’re renewed Your Disciples, O Christ, by giving them the gift of foreign tongues, that through them they might preach of You, the immortal Word and God, // Who give great mercy to our souls.

Creator of all!”
Sticheron 3

The Holy Spirit provides all things: He pours forth prophecies, He leads priests to perfection,

He teaches unschooled people wisdom, He reveals fishermen as theologians, He confirms the Church.

O Comforter, one in essence and enthroned with the Father and the Son,
We have seen the true Light. We have received the heavenly Spirit. We have found the true faith, worshiping the undivided Trinity, // Who has saved us.

Glory to You!
In the Prophets, O our Savior, You proclaimed to us the way of salvation. In the Apostles the grace of Your Spirit shone forth. From the beginning and ever after, You are God, our God before the ages.

In Your courts I will praise You, the Savior of the world.
On bended knee I will worship Your invincible might.

In the evening, in the morning, and at noon-time I will bless You, O Lord.

In Your courts, O Lord, we faithful bend the knees of soul and body; with songs we proclaim You, eternal Father and co-e-tenal Son, and You, all-holy and co-eternal Spirit,//

Who sanctify and enlighten our souls.

Let us praise in song the consubstantial Trinity:

Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.// For this was the preaching of all the Prophets, Apostles, and Martyrs.

Doxastichon at “Lord, I Call”

Pentecost - 50 Days after Pascha

vs. Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit, now, and ever, and unto ages of ages. Amen.

Tone 8

Come, O people, let us worship the God-head in three persons: the Son in the Father with the Holy Spirit! For the Father timelessly begot the Son, co-eternal and co-en-throned with Him; and the Holy Spirit was in the
