and enlightening many people with the light of the Orthodox Faith you have confirmed our land.

Rejoice, O mountains of Pennsylvania, leap for joy, O waters of the Great Lakes, rise up, O fer tile plains of Ca - na - da, for the elect of Christ who dwelt in you are glo - ri - fied, men and women who left their homes for a new land. With faith, hope, and patience as their ar - mor, they courageously fought the good fight. Comforted by the beauty of the Orthodox Faith, they labored in mines and mills, they tilled the land, they braved the challenges of the great cities, enduring many hardships and sufferings. Never failing to worship God in spirit and truth, and unyielding in devotion to His most pure Mother, they erected many temples to His glory.

Come, O assembly of the Orthodox dox, and with love let us praise the holy women, men, and children, those known to us and those known only to God, and let us cry out... to them: “Rejoice, all saints of North America, and pray to God for us.”
