Your triumphant right hand, in a manner befitting God, has been glorified in strength, O Immortal One; for since it is all-powerful, it has broken the enemy in pieces, and for the Israelites has made a new path through the deep.

© 2014 The Orthodox Church in America. Permission is granted to duplicate for liturgical use only. All other rights reserved.
You alone know the infirmity of mortal nature, and yet in compassion have taken on its form; so gird me with power from on high that I may cry to You: "Holy is the living temple of Your ineffable glory, O Lover of mankind!"

Resurrection Kanon - Tone 1
Sunday - Weekly Cycle (Octoechos)

Heirmos 4

With eyes of fore-sight Habbakuk perceived you as a mountain overshadowed by divine grace, and foretold that the Holy One of Israel would come forth from you, // for our salvation and refashioning.

You have enlightened the ends of the world by the brightness of Your coming, O Christ, and made them radiant by Your Cross; enlighten with the light of Your divine knowledge of the hearts of those who sing Your praise with right belief!

---

Heirmos 5

Greek Chant
arr. from B. Ledkovsky

Resurrection Kanon - Tone 1
Sunday - Weekly Cycle (Octoechos)
The utter deep has surrounded us, there is none to deliver us, we are counted as sheep for the slaughter;

save Your people, O our God, // for You are the strength of the weak and their restoration.

Heirmos 6

Soprano

Alto

Tenor

Bass

Greek Chant
arr. from B. Ledkovsky

© 2014 The Orthodox Church in America. Permission is granted to duplicate for liturgical use only. All other rights reserved.
We, the faithful, contemplate you, as a spiritual furnace

O Theotokos. For as He Who is highly exalted saved the three Youths, so, in your womb, He refashioned my enire human nature, the God of our Fathers Who is praised and glorified above all.

In the furnace as in a smelter's fire the Israelite

Youths gleamed brighter than gold in the beauty of godli ness, as they sang: “Bless the Lord, all you works of the Lord, praise and exalt Him above all through-out all ages!”

The burning bush that was not consumed was a type of your childbearing; and now we pray you, O Theotokos:

"Quench the furnace of temptations raging against us, that we may unceasingly magnify you!"